Itinerary 1

A TALE OF TWO ISLANDS

Why choose between Italy and France for your vacation when you can have both? Close in geography but somehow a world apart Sardinia and Corsica share a bond that runs deep. They are both unspoilt islands with a truly striking natural beauty that is evident in the gorgeous beaches, rugged mountainous landscapes and the breathtaking granite cliffs.

And both of the islands exude that distinctive Mediterranean scent known as maquis (or macchia in Italian), a fragrant mixture of wild herbs and flowers that wafts out to sea to ensnare the senses of sailors like a cloud of heady perfume. A new marvel will disclose to your eyes every day spent onboard, cuddled by the crew and enjoying the best restaurants and most charming marinas. All you have to do is be there. Day 1: Northern Sardinia . Dinner and overnight stay in Cala Gavetta. Day2: Corsica and the Islands . Dinner and docking in Bonifacio. Day3: South Corse and Sardinia.

Itinerary 2

THE SUMMER CAPITAL OF MEDITERRANEAN

There is no better way to arrive to the Summer Capitals of Mediterranean than by boat. Where every single fashion guru spends his summer, and where models try to become tops. Get a taste of real Italian "DolceVita" strolling the narrow streets of Porto Cervo and Porto Rotondo, enjoying high-class boutiques and restaurants and the amazing beaches.

The Emerald Coast still manages to combine glamour with laid-back cool in a way that's uniquely Italian and perpetually fascinating.

And the aquamarine water and spectacular coastline of Sardinia are every bit as beautiful as the people. Live the dream: private transfer, luxury yacht, excellent food. Day1: Emerald Coast. Dinner and overnight Stay in Porto Rotondo. Day2: Tavolara Natural Park . Dinner and overnight stay at Marina di Puntaldia. Day3: Best Coves and Beaches.

Itinerary 3

A MEDITERRANEAN ESCAPE

Cruising South towards Golfo di Orosei here is what will open to your eyes. Paradise. Rugged, virgin hillsides and startling rock formations plunge into a placid, clear sea. Time moves more slowly. It's quiet: You hear wind, gulls, and water lapping against rocks. The sun scorches and as you stare into the cool water you see every detail of the boulders and sand below.

It is superlative beyond every possible gushing description. It is heaven. Cruising along the coast you'll pass grottos, coves, beaches, and every type of Blue Lagoon setting you could dream up. A glass of wine, fresh and delicious Italian food, amazing sunsets. Everything is set for your perfect holiday. Just be there.

Day 1: Tavolara National Park. Dinner and anchorage at Porto Ottiolu. Day2: Golfo di Orosei. Dinner and anchorage at Cala Luna. Day3: Coves and beaches.
